In Case of Emergency...

Would you know what to do if a child were choking?

Would you know how to handle an allergic reaction? Do you know how to use an epinephrine pen?

Do you know proper bleeding and bandaging procedures?

The right answer could help you save a life.

CPR/FA training will give you the knowledge and confidence to take appropriate measures in case of an emergency.

Do you need Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and First Aid (CPR/FA) Training Certification for your child day care program?

Apply for a Scholarship through the Educational Incentive Program!

Office of Children and Family Services

The Educational Incentive Program is sponsored by the New York State Office of Children and Family Services, funded by the federal Child Care and Development Fund and administered by the Professional Development Program, Rockefeller College, University at Albany.
What is EIP?

The Educational Incentive Program (EIP) is a scholarship program funded by the New York State Office of Children and Family Services (NYS OCFS) which helps providers pay for training and educational activities. EIP has dedicated funding for providers to obtain CPR/FA certification.

Scholarship Eligibility

EIP for CPR and First Aid scholarship eligibility is based on your employment, level of income and the course or training you choose.

Scholarship awards will be issued for up to $125 for classroom training and up to $95 for online training that includes a skills testing component.

Child Care Regulations

New York State Child Day Care regulations require that all child day care programs have at least one caregiver who holds a valid certificate in CPR and First Aid on the premise of the child care program during program hours.

More Information

We all want the children in New York State to receive the best early childhood care possible.

For further information you can contact EIP at (800) 295-9616. You can also email us at eip@albany.edu.

How do I apply?

To apply for the CPR/FA component of the EIP program, please visit the Early Childhood Education and Training Program website at www.ecetp.pdp.albany.edu. Once on the homepage, select “Apply” to find out more information and apply online.
